

Eighteenth International Conference on Shaken Baby Syndrome/Abusive Head Trauma
October 23, 24, & 25, 2022
Philadelphia, PA, USA
Scholarship Funds Application

The National Center on Shaken Baby Syndrome is now accepting applications for scholarships. Very limited funding is available this year to provide scholarships for families of victims of SBS to attend. Families who have not attended an SBS/AHT Conference in the past or who have not received a scholarship from the NCSBS will be given priority. Applicants must not be receiving support to attend from any other organization. The granted funds shall be used exclusively towards hotel and travel costs. This assistance will be awarded in amounts up to $750. Funds will be reimbursed at the beginning of the conference with copies of all applicable receipts. To apply for a scholarship, please fill out this form and submit to the National Center on Shaken Baby Syndrome no later September 30, 2022. Applying for scholarships does not guarantee you will receive assistance.
